

NZASA New Zealand Acupuncture Standards Authority Inc.

Rm 112, Level 1, 321B Great South Road, Ellerslie, Auckland 1051, New Zealand Email: nzasainc@xtra.co.nz

NZASA Standards, Ethics & Safe Practice Questionnaire

This is a questionnaire on NZASA's standards and codes for professional acupuncturists. The questionnaire will be marked at the time of your Professional Visit. Answers to all these questions can be found in NZASA's Standards of Acupuncture Practice, Code of Ethics, Code of Safe Practice for Acupuncturists, Informed Consent Guidelines and Cultural Competency Guidelines. The documents are located in the Policies and Guidelines section of the NZASA website.

Practitioner Name:	Registration No.:
Standards of Acupuncture Practice
List a minimum of three (3) requirements the Standards and Code of Ethics document	from Standard 2 of the Standards of Acupuncture Practice foundin nt.
According to Standard 3 of the Standards you cannot help the client using acupunctur	s of Safe Acupuncture practice, what is required of you if yourealise re?
Code of Ethics
3. Identify the practitioner's first priority requ found in the Standards, Ethics and Safe Pra	uired in the Professional Conduct section of the Code of Ethics actice document.
4. List three (3) of the Health & Disability Co	mmission Codes of Rights
5. What are you legally required to obtain from	om the patient before any treatment commences?

6. For minors (children under the age of 16 years) what is the requirement before any treatment commences?
7. According to the Confidentiality section of the Code of Ethics, how long does NZASA recommend you keep your client records?
8. Advertisements by practitioners must not make statements which cannot be supported by facts.
TRUE FALSE
9. Describe in your own words what is meant by 9.1.2 under Sexual Misconduct with Patients.
10. What did the NZASA Executive agree in November 2009 about sterile single-use needles?
Code of Safe Practice for Acupuncturists
11. Name the four (4) Prohibited Areas for needling as listed in the Contraindications Precautions section of the Code of Safe Practice for Acupuncturists.
12. Name four (4) of the Vulnerable Points that require skill and care as listed in the Contraindications and Precautions section when needling.
13. Name three (3) of the Western medical conditions your client may have that require special care when treating as listed in the Contraindications and Precautions section.
14. What does NZASA recommend you do if your client is suffering from drunkenness (is under the influence of alcohol)?
15. What does NZASA recommend you do if your client experiences bruising or haematoma during treatment?

What does NZASA recommend you do if you suspect your client has	a pneumothorax?
17. List the five (5) key points from the Infection Prevention and Control	section of the Code of Safe Practice
for Acupuncturists.	Section of the Code of Sale Fractice
Tot Acapanolarios.
18. When using moxa or cupping or any other form of treatment where a	consumer may suffer from physical injury, should you leave the patient/consumer unattended at any time du injury; enough you leave the pattern concurred and any time au	and a deament.
19. Can you use Electronic Acupuncture on a client with a Pacemaker?
TRUE FALSE
TRUE FALSE Cultural Competence
Cultural Competence	IZASA Pagistared members should
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N
Cultural Competence
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the Guidelines?	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the Guidelines?	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the Guidelines?	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the Guidelines?	e Guidelines.
Cultural Competence 20. What are the three (3) aspects of culturally competent practice that N demonstrate as discussed on page 3 of the NZASA Cultural Competence 21. What are the four aspects of the Maori Health Model described in the Guidelines?	e Guidelines. e NZASA Cultural Competence Date: